Carl Holman Weds an Iowa Girl.

From the Tipton, Iowa, Conservative, we take the following excerpts relative to the marriage of Carl Holman, of this city:

At twelve o'clock today, Nov. 26th, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Neiman, occurred the marriage of Miss Claire Louise Neiman and Mr. John Carl Holman, of North Platte, Neb. Mrs. W. H. Johnston, of Muscatine played Lohengrin's wedding march as the bridal couple, unattended, took position in the attractively decorated bay window, and Rev. Jas. A. Waits, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Mendota, Ill., assisted by Dr. E. Wallace Waits, of Tipton, conducted the ceremony and pronounced them husband and wife.

The bride wore a handsome crepe voile over messaline and carried a bouquet of bride's roses.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with pink and white chrysanthemums and smilax, and with shades drawn, illuminated by pink shaded candles and electric lights.

Following congratulations a four-course dinner was served, Misses Pearl Wright and Hattie Dean in pink and white, to correspond with the decorations, waiting upon those seated at the tables. Pretty place cards with small bells attached by ribbons were the bride's contribution in the way of souvenirs of the happy event.

At the conclusion of the dinner the bride and groom took their departure by automobile and will be absent for two or three days, after which they will return to Tipton for a week or so and then go to North Platte, where the groom has a fine new house prepared for their occupancy.

The bride is a real Tipton girl, born, raised and graduated in the high school here. Subsequently she took a three years' course at the State University and is a highly accomplished as well as an amiable and attractive young lady, with a large circle of friends to tender congratulations and wish her unalloyed happiness in her new home.

The dog has always been a pet and it was a great surprise to its owner when it acted so queerly. He feared that it had rabies so took it out and shot it. He immediately had his wounds cauterized. Unless complications set in, he will be alright in a short time.
